OUR 5 NYC DISHES YOU CAN'T MISS

The $10 special from Fiore's Pizza (2 marinara slices and a 40 oz. bottle of beer).

In a neighborhood known for its pricey rent and fancy store-fronts Fiore's Pizza seems more steeped in Old New York. Actually a Staten Island pizzeria, Fiore's offers not just the best tasting slice of floppy NYC pizza but the fact that you can get 2 of them with a 40 oz. bottle of Coors Light for $10 means this could potentially be a one stop replacement for both your restaurant and bar plans.

Where do I find this magic:

Fiore's Pizza

Address: 165 Bleecker St., NY, NY, 10012

Phone: 212-982-8663

Roti canai Super tasty and creamy chicken curry with coconut milk, spices and lots of Love. Served with the flakiest of flaky roti bread. With so much ghee you'll say golly ghee that's good!

Where do I find this magic:

West New Malaysia

Address: 48 Bowery

Phone: 212 964-0284

Schiacciata Made with Mortadella, robiola cheese & truffle oil. It tastes like a delicate "Cuban sandwich" made by angels. On their menu as an Appetizer ( but I've ordered it as my entree often) make this one of the many starters you have to try at Rafele.

Where do I find this magic:

Ristorante Rafele

Address: 29 7th ave. South

Phone: 212-242-1999

Website: www.rafele.com

Bolognese over Pasta

I seriously dream about the Bolognese at Pesce. It feels like it's been simmering away for hours, the meat is fork tender, it melts in your mouth. The sauce has a natural sweetness to it and the touch of cream that they add at the end, makes it velvety smooth.

Where do I find this magic:

Pesce Pasta

Address: 262 Bleecker Street

Phone: 212-645-2993

Website: www.pesce-pasta.com

Fettuccine Ai Funghi

A few key words about why its that good: Homemade fettuccine and wild mushrooms topped with white truffle oil and black truffle pate, what's not to love?
